Sharing mobility and environment: outlining benefits and drawbacks

INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR

PROGRAMME

8.30 Participants registration
9.00 Opening
9.15 RIDER Project presentation
Guido Smorto | University of Palermo
9.30 Conference presentation
Giuseppe Ingarao | University of Palermo
9.45 From user acceptance to impacts of shared mobility
Patricia Baptista | Center for Innovation, Technology and Policy Research, Lisbon
10.15 Economic and environmental impacts of organized Car Sharing Services: a case study of Ireland
Bidisha Ghosh | Trinity College Dublin
10.45 The role for car sharing in medium to small-sized towns and in less-densely populated rural areas
Lucia Rotaris | University of Trieste
11.15 The environmental benefits of carsharing: the case study of Palermo
Gabriele D’Orso, Marco Migliore and Domenico Caminiti | University of Palermo
11.45 Is the sharing mobility environmentally friendly travelling approach? A European cross-countries empirical evaluation
Erica Mazzola | University of Palermo
12.15 Towards unmanned electric vehicles
Fabio Viola | University of Palermo
12.45 Sharing economy and sustainability: modelling and quantitative analyses
Paolo Roma | University of Palermo
13.00 Lunch break
14.00 Workshop starting (in collaboration with NEXT, Ecomuseo Mare Memoria Viva, PUSH)
16.00 Students presentations
17.30 Event closing
Guido Smorto and Giuseppe Ingarao

Scientific Committee
Giuseppe Ingarao, Cristiano Inguglia, Giorgia Pavani, Guido Smorto, Ignazio Vinci

Organizing Committee
Giuseppe Ingarao, Erica Mazzola, Cristiano Inguglia, Guido Smorto, Ignazio Vinci

In collaboration with
NEXT Nuove Energie per il Territorio, Ecomuseo Mare Memoria Viva, PUSH

Promoted by
Department of Engineering | University of Palermo