Project work (Part II)

PROJECT WORK

STEP 3 – SELECTING AND ANALYSING LOCAL POLICIES

The policy analysis should be focusing on one initiative or programme, or on a range of initiatives and programmes that are united by a common topic.

Once the topic or initiative is selected, that analysis should be firstly focusing on:

- Partnership: institutions and stakeholders involved, what are responsible for.
- Timeline: the progress of the project/policy, which are the milestones in the design and implementation.
- Any vertical or horizontal integration with other projects, initiatives, policies.
- Results: main outcomes being provided by the initiatives, trying to discern the discern among the direct and indirect effects of policy.
